RACE TRACK, MONMOUTH PARK July 6.-A very slim crowd was in attendance at the races here to-day, and the rumor that after July 14 Monmouth would only race three days a week grew in force. The officials of the Club strenuously deny, however, that any such move has been contemplated. Their ing, and it is not probable than any

Three of the six entries in the first race were withdrawn, leaving Siroccoy. Temen and the two-year-old Appomattox. The latter never had a chance from the moment he was entered.

The race was conceded to lie between Birocco and Yemen, and the former was looked upon as a sure winner, Yemen did the trick, however, winning in a hard drive by a head. Afterwards it was said that Sirocco's race in the Fourth of July Handicap took away the edge of his speed. Any way he was beaten.

Dobbins was defeated in the Seabright Stakes. Jack of Spades was the victor, and he beat the Croker crack by a meck. The weight beat Dobbins. He headed Jack of Spades in the last furions, but could not hold his lead. Tenacious was third.

Jockey Doggett was suspended to-day for using impudent language to Treasurer Dwyer. After Sirocco's defeat Doggett was called up by Mr. Dwyer and questioned as to Sirocco's defeat Doggett thought Dwyer was suspicious that he pulled the horse, and he grew indignant and impudent. As the jockey turned away he remarked that any one who said that he pulled the horse was a lar. Mr. Dwyer asked if he (Doggett) was referring to him. Doggett resplied in the negative. Mr. Dwyer suspended Doggett, with the intimation that he would be ruled off.

RACE TRACK, BRIGHTON BEACH, July 6.-An unusually large crowd was by the Brighton Beach Racing Associa-tion for to-day, and by the time the programmes are out for the full meeting, and it is not probable than any change will be made.

Manager Croft said that all he knew of the matter was what he read in the papers this morning, and Lucius Appleby, manager of the betting ring, also denied that there was any truth in the report. Philip Dwyer, the treasurer of the Club, also denied the rumors. Disinterested people point to the fact that Monmouth will have sixteen clear days after Brighton discontinues, which will make full amends for any injury the opposition may inflict in the mean time.

O. S. Burnett, of the National Cycling Association, was the referee, and the judges were the same as at Manhattan Field. The races were started at 4 o'clock to-day, and a band concert preceded and interspersed the events.

President Byrne said the races Saturday would be started at 3.30 o'clock instead of four. The first event was the quarter-mile scratch.

There were nine starters in the first heat. Harry Wheeler, the all-round runner, took the lead at the very start, and won easily by five lengths, with P. J. Berlo second, C. E. Kluge third, C. W. Dorntge fourth. Time—33 56-60s.

The second and final heat brought out the same men as in the previous heat. Nobody was in it after the flag fell except Wheeler, although Berlo lapped his wheel just at the finish tape.

They finished in that order, with H. G. Crocker third and C. E. Kluge fourth. Time—34 20-60 seconds. This made 475 already taken by the "Kid" from Orange.

with a percentage of 9350.

He was born in the Seventh Ward twenty-seven years ago, and his father is Daniel Donovan, a ship chandler, now in business at 157 South street.

Dr. Donovan received his primary education in St. James's Parochial School, on James street, and in due time he entered the De La Salle Academy, on East Second street, from which he gradutated in 1880. He then went to St. Lawrence College, at Montreal, where he took high honors, being graduated in 1883.

A three years' course in the Medical Department of Columbia College followed, after which Dr. Donovan went to Irriand, where he became the resident physician of the Rotunda Hospital at Dublin. He remained there six months, when he took a three months course in surgery at the Great Osmand Hospital in London.

The following three months he spent in 1882. He then wedded Miss Mary E. Murphy and went to live at 173 East One Hundred and Thirteenth street.

The next three years he was connected with the Out-Door Patlent Department of Roosevelt and New York hospitals as assistant physician and surgeon, alternating between both institutions.

When the Stuyvesant Democratic Club was organized in 1889 Dr. Donovan became a member, and was elected First Vice-President, an office which he has since held.

Dr. Donovan is a well-built, athletic young man, with fair complexion, pleasing blue eves and dark hair, and a brown mustache. He is a great favorite with his district, and is a member of the County Medical Society.

Dr. John D. Gorman is a young man of some ability and well fitted to be a police surgeon. His education was completed in the University of Vermant, E. T. Donovan is a member of the New York County Medical Association.

Chief of Police Robert A. Haggerty who has had charge of the Monmouth Park race track for the past twentyfor Robert A. Pinkerton and his men. Recently sixty-one Pinkerton men were appointed to do duty at the gates as gerty's men, and, as a result, the latter and his men vacate the track by next eedings against Pinkerton for exercising the functions of an officer with-out authority. The law provides a punishment of imprisonment for one year, or a fine of $500, or both. The appointor a fine of $500, or both. The appointment of the sixty-one Pinkerton men robs the home talent of just so many positions, and naturally Haggerty's men feel sore. Haggerty has asked Senator Terhune and Assemblymen Strahan and Honce, all of Monmouth County, to drive the Pinkertons from the State. The Association may arrange matters amicably, but if not there may be lively times ahead for the Pinkerton men.
